

THE MAGIC HAS BEGUN ON AMAZON.COM!

Two sumptuous books in one, Gini Gentry's groundbreaking Dreaming Down Heaven begins with the fictional quest of Gigi Lenox, a once "together" New Yorker whose world has just come spectacularly undone. But instead of using retail therapy to ease the pain, Gigi embarks on a spiritual journey through a mystical world of magical encounters, tests and miracles.

Inspired by a mysterious guidebook "authored" by Maya, universal Goddess of Illusion, and based on the fundamental wisdom gleaned in Gentry's own real-life awakening, Gigi discovers self-mastery and a joyful awareness of life. The reader will, too. Gigi's story will resonate with the vast audience of contemporary women and men who are searching for authenticity amid the distracting demands of modern life. Through the voice of her sometimes bewildered, but often funny and always determined protagonist, Gentry makes the esoteric utterly accessible.
